CITY CLERK

PROFILE

- Founder and owner of Dunn & Hobbes LLC, an award-winning real estate development company in Seattle that works to further the concept of densely populated, pedestrian-oriented neighbourhoods
- Urban policy consultant and community activist with strong engagement in urban land use, green building and transportation issues. Early-stage investor and/or advisor to several Pacific Northwest clean energy ventures.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE1998-present DUNN & HOBBS LLC*Seattle, WA

Founder and principal of an urban real estate development company specializing in the adaptive reuse of historic buildings and the construction of small-scale infill projects that mix residential, retail, office and cultural uses. Dunn & Hobbes' projects are designed to demonstrate the benefits of living in dense walkable neighbourhoods by combining striking architecture with a focus on street-level amenities.

Real estate assets and development projects:

- 1101 East Pike Street (under contract) – Historic building in the heart of Seattle's Pike-Pine neighborhood
- 12th Avenue Marketplace (acquired 2000, ongoing) – Six adjacent properties undergoing phased redevelopment in Seattle's former "auto row" neighbourhood:
 - restoration of the Pacific Supply hardware building (2003)
 - renovation of the Piston & Ring building (2006) to accommodate restaurants, retail and offices
 - construction of the Agnes Lofts (2007, winner of 2009 AIA Northwest Citation);
 - construction of Chophouse Row (2014) which adds five stories of loft office space to an auto row building repurposed as a local retail/food market
- Melrose Market (completed 2010) – A triangular block of historic automotive buildings repurposed for retail/restaurant use, including an indoor marketplace of local organic food vendors. Winner of several local and national awards and featured in many national publications and advertisements.
- 1310 east union lofts (completed 2001) – Eight live/work lofts, a flower shop, and Seattle's first independent-access stacked parking, built on a formerly contaminated 3,200 sf (300m²) urban infill site. Winner of the 2003 National AIA multi-family award and 2002 Seattle Times Housing the Northwest award

Consulting:

- Preservation Green Lab, Founding Executive Director (2009-2013) - Contracted by the National Trust for Historic Preservation to start and run a think tank to work with cities around the nation on policy issues related to building reuse and retrofit. Built to a staff of 5 and an annual budget of over $2MM. Projects included a new outcome-based performance framework for building energy codes, and new urban metrics for the economic/social performance of neighborhoods with repurposed buildings.

- Portland State University Urban Sustainability Accelerator (2012) – Guest lecturer, summer program.
- University of Washington Runstad Center for Real Estate, Affiliate Fellow (2011-2012) – Participated in a multi-disciplinary team of students, faculty and industry leaders to investigate urban sustainability and growth management strategies in Istanbul, Turkey.
- Gates Foundation's global headquarters campus design (2005-2008) – Independent consultant to the client team on issues of urban design and the interface between the public realm and the new campus, which will be located on an urban brownfield site bordering downtown Seattle.

1997 Independent consultant

Performed software / web market research and product design for clients including WGBH Boston, Cricket Moon Media, Microsoft and the Gates Library Foundation.

1996 DREAMWORKS INTERACTIVE SKG Seattle, WA / Burbank, CA

Executive Producer; directed a team creating interactive game prototypes based on DreamWorks films.

1987-1995 MICROSOFT CORPORATION Redmond, WA / Paris, France
